Foreword

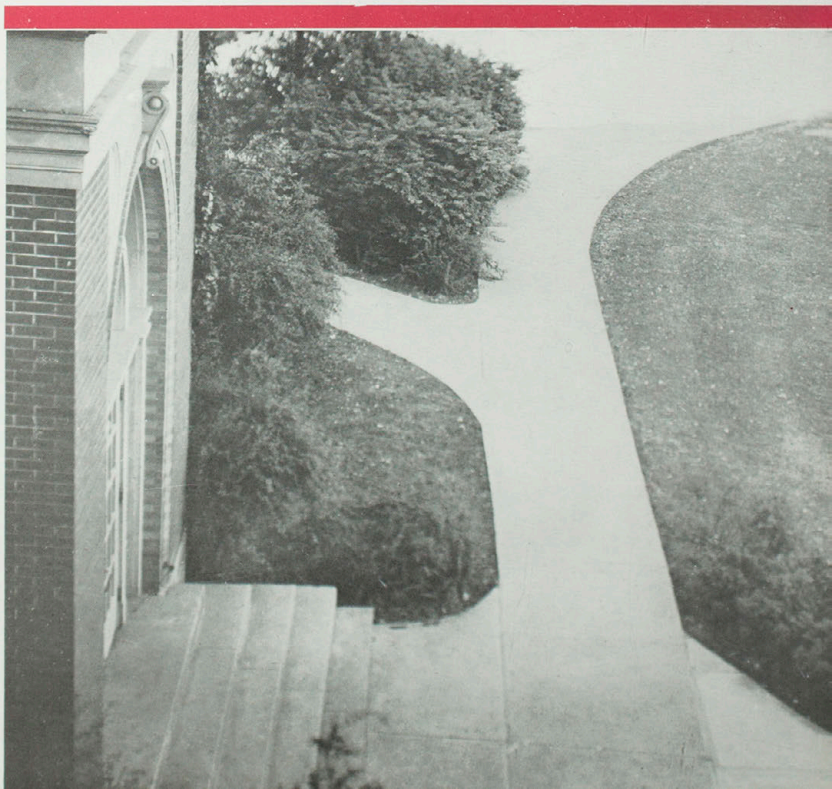

Informality in content

and simplicity in design are the means by which we have produced a yearbook representing the College and its activities.

With this in mind we have tried to evaluate student activity in the light of its contribution to a well-rounded education.

Dedication

TO JOSEPH BALDWIN, JOHN R. KIRK and
EUGENE FAIR, whose wise and progressive leadership has resulted in the preparation of teachers that now might rise to the dignity of practitioners in a true profession, this book is dedicated.

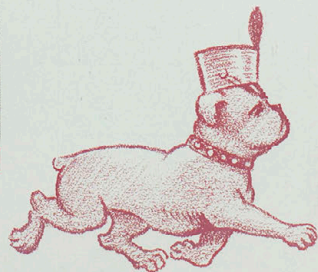

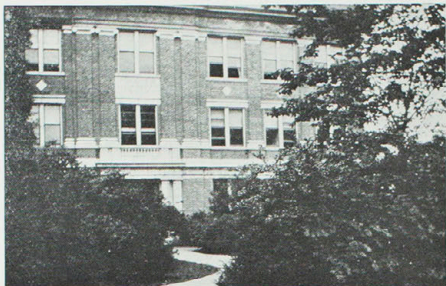

Contents

BOOK I: COLLEGE—The Presidents, the Board of Regents, the Student Council, the Faculty, and the Student Personnel. BOOK II: ACTIVITIES—Football, Basketball, Women's Athletics, Speech, and Music. BOOK III: ORGANIZATIONS—Social and Professional. BOOK IV: FEATURES—Queens of Beauty, Representative Students, and What-nots.

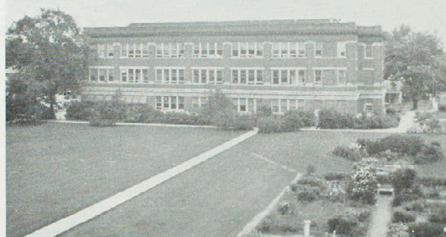

The Bull dog Parade

LIBRARY BUILDING:

First floor—Commerce Department, office of the Northeast Missourian, and five delightful class rooms. Going up. Second floor—English and Social Science Departments, Bureau of Placements, and Guidance Bureau, watch your step, please. Third floor—Silence please, libraries floor, general and co-op, anything from A to Z except the May 15, 1924 issue of a badly needed magazine for a much belated term paper.

KIRK AUDITORIUM:

Ground floor—Health Department, say a-a-a-a-a-h, Industrial Arts—Don't mind the noise, The Book Store—Books and service, Women's Parlor and Dean of Women, Sociability Hall—comfortable lounges for any couple. Going up. Second floor—Music and Physical education. Odd combination. Such lovely harmony between the tenors and shouting basketball men accompanied by the persistent hammering of "set" builders. Third floor—Balcony seats—please use at Assembly times.

THE LITTLE THEATER:

Where they make or break would be Cornells and Barrymores. With pounding in the basement, screaming directors on the ground floor, make-up laboratories in the attic, this house puts up, gives, and tears down two shows every two weeks.

William Tell has nothing on this group. Here they stand; here they shoot arrows all day. Are they Good! They don't even move away from the walks so sure are they that their arrow will hit the target instead of some passerby. Why don't they go to the stadium?

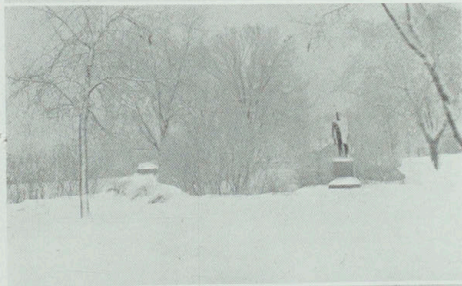

Rising from the snow he stands, Joseph Baldwin, looking toward the ghost of a building that has long since become but a memory. Hundreds pass by, yet he stands alone, alone as a pioneer whose visions made it possible for the hundreds to pass.

Out of season for the sunken garden, yet the snow does not hide from our memories the garden when it blooms. During the summer months the ever present colors command attention. The long parade of blues, yellows and reds spring from the green that surrounds them.

To the north our eyes are lost in a haze of snow covered branches that blend into a cloudy sky. An artist has splashed white on one side, then swiftly has dashed on leaving his work but half completed . . . perhaps.

How often we have heard of the "good old days" when grandpa remembers back in '89 or '79, when he recalls that the temperature went to 20 below, when five feet of snow fell.

This is to furnish you with proof fifty years from now when you spin yarns about the winter of '35-'36.

Snooping around on the inside we find several groups diligently pursuing their studies, (except the group at the bottom.)

FROM TOP TO BOTTOM:

Dropping in at the Kirk we find a biology class in progress. Here we find students looking through microscopes, at cultures. Of course they are a privileged group for other departments study cultures and they do not rate microscopes.

On the third floor of the Science Hall where cooks are made. They seem to be getting a meal, as they are dressed appropriately. It is rumored that by the end of the year the girls learn how to boil water and peel potatoes.

Although it's a long jaunt from Paris and it's a good jaunt to Hollywood, the women of K.S.T.C. insist on making their own dresses. Don't ask us what dressmaking has to do with Science. We admit ignorance, but while you're at it figure this one out. Why are the administration offices in the same building—the Science Hall?

Here we are at the bottom again. Isn't it a lovely pose. The intellectuals using their time to the best advantage. Studying? No. Day-dreaming? Without doubt. ATTENTION! Can you find the two "K" men. How did they get lost?

Book
I

College

We dedicate Book I to the College representing a fusion of three factors: the administration, the faculty, and the student body. To us the College represents the lifeblood from which all activities flow.

John R. Kirk
President-Emeritus

THE URGE for universal education is upon us. Its purpose is to perpetuate American Democracy. But how? Can premature specialization for vocations bring it about? Surely not.

Objective knowledge, apperceiving experiences, widened horizons, understandings of community life are necessities. School and college are fundamental, but not enough. Recitative thinking may restrict and retard constructive and creative ideality.

Children and youth have no inactive moments. Curiosity and "hand hunger" constantly seek realities in material for constructive thinking.

Mental intake is basic; but ingenuity and productive output yield the greater values. Expressive instincts demand opportunity for fruition of hand, heart and mind.

Eugene Fair

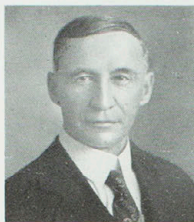

President

A Senior Meditates

Echo I shall have four golden years
Woven from threads of memory.
Autumn days found me here
Working with others in friendly mind
To start just right those golden years
Faculty and mentors were really counselors and guides.
Ample opportunity I had to be myself.
I was not patronized
My many questions were answered fair and square
On every hand doors were opened by them and fellow students
Which led to greater usefulness, understanding and power
All for the common good.
And even so it has been through my gliding college years
This is my last year and my best.
The Echo enshrines for me that year
In picture, word and cartoon.
In coming years I'll turn its pages through
Again and again it shall recall four golden years
Echoes you say, but how true to memories.

—Eugene Fair.

FOOTBALL

Fred Faurot

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

MR. FAUROT received his B. S. degree in Agriculture from the University of Missouri in 1933. Since then he spent one year coaching in the Excelsior Springs high school and one year in the Chillicothe high school before coming to the teachers college in March, 1935. Mr. Faurot, when asked to state his idea as to what the ultimate goal in football should be, said:

"The ultimate aim in football work is to win; however before this can be accomplished there are several objectives which we try to advance in our football squads. Such are good sportsmanship and willingness to play. We try to teach our boys to play as hard as they can and as clean as they can, to respect authority of officials, and that there is no disgrace to lose if they have done their best."

1935 Co-Captains

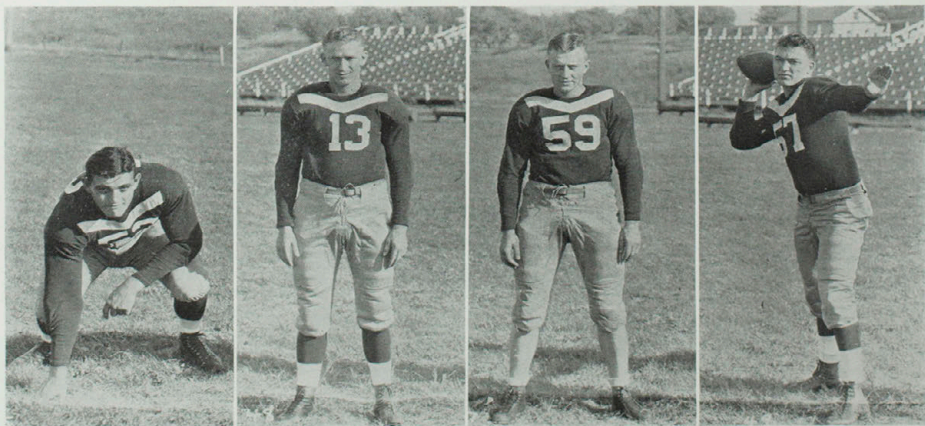

CARL NOBLE, 198 pounds, Kirksville, Mo., lettered four years as left tackle, all-conference in 1934, all-conference and all-state in 1935.

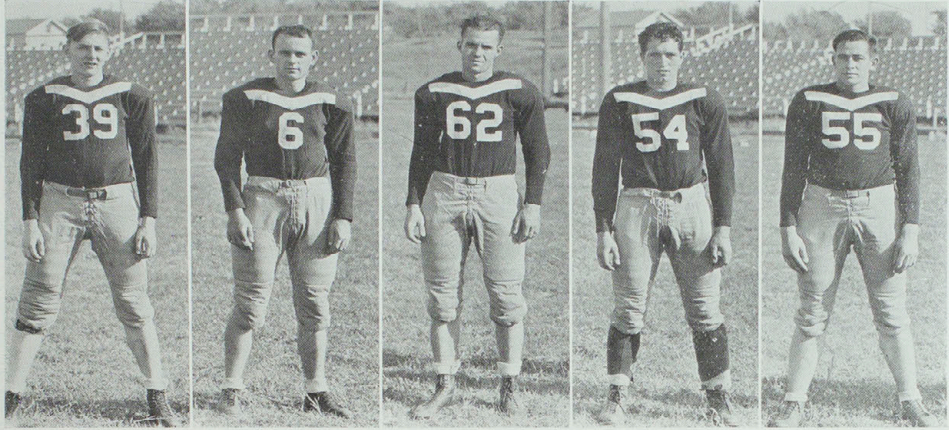

FRANK HANNA, 168 pounds, Kansas City, Mo., lettered four years as halfback, honorable mention all-conference, 1934; honorable mention all-conference, 1935.

1936 Co-Captains

RALPH CAVANAH, 190 pounds, Marceline, Mo., three years fullback, all-conference, 1935.

RALPH ALEXANDER, 185 pounds, Brookfield, Mo., three years as left halfback, all-conference, 1935.

Review of the Season

THE BULLDOGS' 1935 SEASON started with a squad of seventy men, fourteen of which were lettermen and twenty-five being last year workers. The men had behind them a record of twenty-six straight victories, and before them the world's record mark of twenty-nine. Only four games had to be won to put them in the leading position.

The first encounter was with Carthage on September 27. Co-Captains Hanna and Noble led the Bulldogs to a smashing victory of 35-0 which placed the three games from the record, but also placing them facing the toughest team of the year, the St. Louis Billikens. With three leading men on the injured list the Bulldogs' egg basket was upset when the Billikens came through for a 37-7 victory. Being able to take it the Bulldogs came back with vengeance defeating Simpson College by a score of 34-0.

The battle for the M.I.A.A. championship started Friday, October 18th, when the Bulldogs met the Warrensburg Mules. Kirksville scraped out on top by a score of 10-9. Supplementing this on the 25th by a second conference victory, Kirksville won a decided victory over Springfield, the final score being 27-0.

Returning home the Bulldogs met the Indians who had the same percentage standing in the Conference. After a very dull game for the spectator, the home eleven ceased their romping with a score of 20-0.

Thus the football season ended with the Bulldogs taking the M.I.A.A. Championship for the fourth consecutive season. During the season the team scored a total of 90 points over their opponents' 21. Captain-elect Cavanah totaled 34 points to lead all rivals by a margin of 10 points. Captain-elect Alexander ended in fourth place in the scoring race of the Conference.

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

Miss Frances Fuller

INSTRUCTOR OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION

MISS FULLER received the Bachelors Degree in Education from the N.E.M.S.T. and her A. M. from Columbia University, New York. During the first part of the summer of 1935 Miss Fuller attended the Mary Wiegand Central Institute in Dresden, Germany. The Mary Wiegand is a school in modern dancing. Later she enrolled in the thirteenth Annual English-Scandinavian Summer School of Physical Education at Canterbury, England. This school is held particularly for teachers in Physical Education. In it there were 200 students from five countries, five being from the United States. While still in England, Miss Fuller witnessed the First International Folk Dance Festival, held at London.

THROUGHOUT THE YEAR the department sponsors dance programs illustrating the types of dancing taught. Emphasis has been placed on three types of dances, folk dancing, tap dancing, and natural dancing. During the Fall quarter the department gave a program in assembly illustrating the tap dancing. In this program the theme carried out was the Sun Bonnet Babies and Overall Boys. During this quarter came an assembly program in natural dancing which was done as part of the extra-curricular activities of the department.

In the winter quarter the natural dancing class took up the modern dance. At the end of the quarter the girls gave a very excellent program showing what they had interpreted. With some revision in the program this class presented it before the A. A. U. W.

With the Spring Quarter came the folk dancing class. It sponsored an English Folk Dance Party for the Kirksville High School girls. This was celebrating the twenty-first anniversary of the English Folk Dance Society in America. The Class is also giving a series of Spanish dances in May in a joint program with the Kirksville Symphony Orchestra.

MR. BARRETT STOUT

Mr. Stout received his B.S. in Kirksville and in 1927 he obtained his A.M. degree from New York University. Since that time Mr. Stout has been doing graduate work at the University of Iowa and the University of Arizona. He has also had extensive work in private voice study. The men under whom he has studied are: D. R. Gebhart, Nashville; Maurice DeVries, Chicago; Stephen Townsend, Boston; Paul Allhouse, New York; Rollin Pease, Tuscon.

When asked what the aims of the choir were, Mr. Stout replied:

"To train students to fit well into ensemble singing, and to acquaint them with the literature for such."

In this way he hopes to teach students how to strive for perfection as a group and not as individuals.

THE A CAPPELLA CHOIR is an extra-curricular organization that rehearses two times each week. Membership is obtained through try-outs at the beginning of the fall term. Any student enrolled in the college may try out for the choir. During the course of the year the choir gives concerts in the towns of Northeast Missouri, and occasionally makes more extensive trips. During the past few years the choir has accepted invitations to sing at the Missouri State Teachers Association, Kansas City; Missouri State Music Teachers Association, Columbia, Mo.; Washington University, St. Louis; National Music Teachers Association, Lincoln, Nebraska.

The Kirkville Symphony Orchestra

THE KIRKSVILLE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA, which is sponsored by the College, is recruited from the best players in the Kirkville College of Osteopathy and Surgery, the Kirkville High School, the Teachers College and the community at large. Starting with a small group of music lovers that met weekly for the purpose of studying the masterpieces of orchestral music it has rapidly grown to its present membership of fifty. While its primary purpose is still to afford to its members the opportunity to become familiar with orchestral literature and to acquire experience in symphonic playing, the orchestra gives annual public concerts and cooperates with the vocal forces of the school and community in productions of the standard operas and oratorios.

K. S. T. C. Band

THIS YEAR'S BAND, one of the largest in several years, was directed by Professor R. E. Valentine.

During the regular school year the band plays for football and basketball games together with its occasional program and concert.

The summer school band, composed chiefly of teachers in Northeast Missouri, will give a weekly concert this summer under the auspices of the Kirksville Chamber of Commerce.

THIS ORGANIZATION was formed in 1905 by the following men: Dr. Eugene Fair, Professor J. T. Vaughn, Representative E. O. Jones, Superintendent Charles Banks, and J. H. McKinney. Every two weeks meetings were held at ten o'clock on Saturday. The meetings were two hours in length, the programs consisting of a worthwhile discussion by one of the members, were planned many months in advance. Each member of the society was expected to contribute some thought to the subject in the round table discussion. With the exception of a very few years, the Society has been active, and has maintained a high standard in its programs.

At the present time the Society meets every two weeks on the first and third Wednesdays of each month. This year the society has tried to present interesting discussions presented by members of the Social Science faculty and by outside speakers.

CARDINAL KEY was definitely organized as a national honor society for women in the spring of 1932, as the result of a considerable number of the Blue Key Chapters.

Gamma Chapter was organized on the campus in the spring of 1934. During the past two years Cardinal Key has functioned in many services to the school. Of these two are the famous "Open House" and the Cardinal Key Scholarship. The requirements for membership are the same as those for Blue Key.

Blue Key Fraternity

THE BLUE KEY FRATERNITY, known as the "College Man's Rotary Club," bears the same relation to the college that the Rotary Club bears to the community at large. Blue Key was founded at the University of Florida in the fall of 1924. The decision to expand into a national fraternity was made in February, 1925, and now there are chapters in sixty colleges and universities throughout the United States. The chapter at the Northeast Missouri State Teachers College was organized December 9, 1925, and installed April 5, 1926.

Membership is based on the following qualifications: 1. Scholarship; 2. Interest and affiliation with school activities; 3. Personality, and 4. Moral standing. It is limited to men having sixty hours of credit in this institution.

COLLEGE PLAYERS is a group of young people under the sponsorship of Miss Ruth Curtis of the speech department.

More than one hundred students work together in this group for the purpose of enjoying and sharing with others the very best in heritage of dramatic literature. This purpose has dominated and directed the activities of the group since its beginning in 1912, as a class in Shakespeare under Professor E. R. Barrett. The organization, then the Thalian Guild and later the College Dramatic Club, under the direction of Dr. C. M. Wise, was the nucleus from which grew the present speech department.

A year's work is divided between social activities and dramatic productions. Activities consist of two one-act plays fortnightly throughout the year and three to four major productions.

The Honorary Art Club

THE HONORARY ART CLUB, reorganized December, 1924, is composed of students whose major interest lies in the field of fine and applied arts. Its purpose is to develop a wider knowledge and appreciation of art. An example of its work is the annual art exhibit which it holds each spring. Often the organization tries to make trips to near-by cities to make a study of art galleries.

Debate Squad

THE DEBATE SQUAD, an informal organization to the extent of no president or other officers, is a group to which all College debaters and those interested automatically become members.

The Debate Squad meetings are not scheduled on any bulletin board but are held when students or faculty debaters meet and discuss problems with which they are confronted. The members assist in judging and organizing various debate and forensic tournaments and participate in many club, high school, and college programs.

Out of the Debate Squad comes many Pi Kappa Delta members but the most important outcome is the entertaining and profitable hours in which the members participate in mutually enjoyable activities.

We include such a feature because we feel that many times students who have high ranking in the academic field are generally overshadowed by the "spectaculars" of extra-curricular activities.
